BRITISH MUSEUM

THE SUGAR-REFINERS of LONDON

prefent their reſpectful Compliments to Sir G. Shuckburgh and requeſt the Honor of his Attention to the encloſed STATE OF FACTS, and to inform him that the Committee of the Honble. the HOUSE OF COMMONS ſit on the Buſineſs this Day, when it is expected the Evidence in Support of the Petition will be cloſed.

EPITOME of the SUGAR TRADE.

		Cwt.
Average Import	1774 / 1775	1,950,592	per Ann.
	Cwt.
Raw Export	241,536
Refined Export	56,015	297,551	Total Exp.
Conſume of England before the War		1,653,041	per Ann.
Average Import	1779 / 1780	1,379,897
	Cwt.
Raw Export	79,831
Refined Export	24,671	104,502
Preſent Conſumption only		1,275,395
Decline in the Conſumption of England		377,646
Decline in the Export Trade,	Raw - 161,705
	Refined 31,344	192,049
Annual Public Loſs		579,695

Prices in 1773, 4, 5, 6.	Present Prices.
Brown Raw Sugar, 3d. per lb.	Now ſold for 6d. per lb.
Fine ditto, 5d. to 6d.	8d. to 9d.
Double Refined, 12d.	14d. to 16d.
Single Refined Loaves, 7d.	10d.
Brown Lump Sugar, 6d.	9d.
Baſtard for Paſtry, and for the Uſe of the Poor. 3d. to 5d.	6d. to 8d.
Melaſſes, 1½ per lb.	2½ to 3d